

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, The people of the United States will exercise their right of ultimate participation in the democratic process on November 6, 2001; and

WHEREAS, The members of the academic community look to their libraries to provide the information to help them become informed on issues of the day; and

WHEREAS, Law and political science librarians guide members of the academic community to the appropriate sources of that information; and

WHEREAS, Even in times of strife, tragedy and turmoil, these librarians serve as forerunners in providing/organizing the information for maintaining an informed community.

WHEREAS, These librarians come together for support and professional growth in the Law and Political Science Section of ACRL

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mary Reichel, by Virtue of the authority vested in me as President of ACRL, do hereby proclaim November 6, 2001 as in the academic library community.

LAW AND POLITICAL SCIENCE DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I HAVE Hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Association of College and Research Libraries to be affixed at Chicago, this 21 day of 2001 in the year of our Lord two thousand one.

ATTEST:

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Mary Reichel".

President, ACRL

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Mary Ellen Davis".

Executive Director, ACRL